Hello,

The next LAR-IAC Pictometry training is set for April 5, 2007 in Glendale.

Date: Thursday, April 5, 2007
Place: City of Glendale
Perkins Building, 3rd Floor
Glendale Learning Center
141 N. Glendale Ave.
Glendale, CA 91206

The City Parking Garage is off of Wilson Avenue (parking will be validated). Overflow parking is available in the Glendale Fashion Center parking structure across the street from the City Parking Garage.

Training Agenda

- A. 9:00 - 11:30 am – Administrative Training session
Lunch break (lunch not provided)
- B. 1:00 - 3:00 pm – End-User Training session

There are a limited number of workstations. We will be taking reservations on a first-come, first-serve basis, but priority will be given to the agencies that have not had anyone attend previous training sessions.

Administrative Training Session

For this training, there should be one (1) person per city/agency. If there are seats available, we will take more than one person.

End-User Training Sessions

For the End-User Training we will need RSVP's as well. Please limit 2-3 people per city/agency.

If the location and/or time do not work for you, please keep in mind that we will be holding another Pictometry training day in Santa Clarita the following week (4/11/07), as well as at other locations (dates to be announced).

Please RSVP to me and CC Nick Franchino (nfranchino@planning.lacounty.gov). Please be mindful not to hit "reply to all" to this e-mail.

Thank you,

Lois Yoon
