

LA Regional GIS Forum – September 2013

The Los Angeles Regional GIS will serve as a forum for local and regional government agencies to collaborate and share information, ideas, strategies, best practices, and solutions and form partnerships with educational institutions, and State and Federal agencies regarding the implementation and management of GIS in Los Angeles County.

To RSVP, please fill out this web form

Agenda for September 26th, 2013

2 PM – 5 PM

Location:

Southern California Association of Governments (map)
818 W 7th Street, Suite 1200
Los Angeles, CA 90017
Conference Room: Policy A

Agenda

2 – 2:15 PM

Introduction – please provide your current GIS status

2:15 – 3 PM

Demonstration of host agency's GIS (SCAG)

3:00 – 3:30 PM

Updates on LAR-IAC, CAMS

3:30 – 3:45 BREAK

3:45 – 4:30 PM

Discussion of the Bike Path Mapping Project (link to information)

4:30 – 4:45 PM

Discussion of other items

4:45 - 5 PM

Close – finalizing our next meeting.

After the Regional GIS Forum, GeoSpatial LA, a networking group for Los Angeles Area GIS Professionals, will be meeting in the area for a social event. You can find information about the group on LinkedIn and join there.